Lease of lands at Thalekere belonging to Melkote temple.

I have the honor to state that the Amildar of Seringapatam has reported on 9th August 1935 that at the sale of the lease of the marginally noted inam lands at Thalekere village belonging to the Melkote temple held for a period of 5 years from 1935-36, bids was secured as the major portions of lands were dry and the rains were uncertain, and that therefore, the inam lands might be disposed of by sale after cancelling their inam tenure.

57	"	2	27	1
55	" & wet	6	36	7
53	" & garden	11	9	6
				60

As the disposal of lands was not advantageous to the institution as the price thereof had fallen low, the Amildar was asked to try whether a long term lease for 15 or 30 years would not induce the people to take up the lands on lease. Accordingly, the Amildar personally held the sales of the lease of the four Survey Nos. separately, including the right of collecting the produce of gal-nut trees standing on the lands, for a period of 15 years from 1936-37 on a aggregate rental of Rs.60 per annum. The Amildar reports that the bids are fair and that the sales may be confirmed.

As the lease is for 15 years, I request that all the four sales held by the Amildar may kindly be confirmed. The bid amounts are reported to have been recovered.

The connected papers are submitted herewith.

Order No. 40-42/Muz 297-35-2

Bangalore, dated the 4th July 1936.

It is reported that the lease of the above inam lands was sold for a period of five years for Rs.1-7-0 but no bid was secured as the major portion of the inam lands were dry and rainy were uncertain. Attempts were made to find out whether a long term lease for a period of years would induce the people to take up the lands but the Government felt that the lease of all the dry lands should be restricted, inasmuch as the right of collection was reduced to annual basis only on the ground of a period of 15 years for which the rental of Rs.6 per acre was secured. As it is reported to be fair and the Deputy Commissioner has recommended the acceptance of all the bids value. The Mamlat Commissioner has reported that recommendation and there appears to be no objection to the
